Goals for your Rising Pre-K Student

Encourage independence at home! Take the time to let them try to do things for themselves! Practice self help skills such as washing hands, dressing themselves, and of course cleaning up after themselves!! (Let them practice folding their mat and nap blanket if they are a full day student.)

Make sure they are fully bathroom independent. This includes wiping themselves ! Accidents should be few and far between at this age.

Practice Writing their name, and drawing to strengthen fine motor skills!

Take advantage of teachable moments like counting shells at the beach!

Read! Read ! Read! Reading Books to your child is an awesome way to build their brains and will help them become great readers!

Expose them to play with other children if possible, and encourage proper social skills, especially taking turns, and following directions!

Have a Safe and Wonderful Summer!
